Atlanta Cyclorama Civil War Event - June 22

Civil War researchers and speakers Ken Denney and Brad Quinlan would like to invite participants to an 1860s Atlanta and Civil War experience unlike any other. Using their research, they will immerse you in the smells, sounds, and tastes of 1860s Atlanta. They will also provide little-known information about Africa-American participation in the Civil War and details of their burials in a local cemetery. The event will take place Wednesday, June 22nd at 6:30 PM at the Atlanta Cyclorama located at Atlanta's Historic Grant Park on 800 Cherokee Ave, Atlanta, GA 30315. Admission is free and open to the public, though there will be limited seating, so arrive early and bring the family for this exciting event.

Nature in Your Neighborhood Festival - June 25

The Outdoor Activity Center will be holding a handful of events this weekend for both kids and adults. A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held at noon to celebrate the opening of the city's first BioGarden and Incubator sustainable farming system. Additional events include outdoor activities, live broadcasts from Radio Disney, trail hiking, and interactive learning stations that will begin at 1:00 PM on Saturday, June 25th and will conclude around 5:00 PM. Immediately following the events, the Outdoor Activity Center will be hosting a shared camping experience with registration beginning at 4:00 PM and ongoing activities until 10:30 PM. Activities will resume Sunday, June 26th at 7:30 AM with breakfast and an Audubon Bird Walk ending at 10:00 AM. The Outdoor Activity Center is located on 1442 Richland Road SW, Atlanta, GA 30310.
